

Sharon Kay Feldmann

October 5, 1949 - September 26, 2009

Sharon Kay (Rogers) Feldmann, beloved mother and grandmother, passed away in her home on September 20, 2009, of natural causes. Sharon was 59 years old. A Memorial Graveside Service will be held at 11:00 A.M., Saturday, September 26, 2009, at the Wibaux Cemetery for friends and family. Pastor Paul Peterson will be officiating. A luncheon will be held following the service at the Wibaux County Fairgrounds. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Wibaux is entrusted with arrangements. Sharon was born on October 5, 1949, in Glendive, Montana, to Warren and Catherine (Schieffer) Rogers. She joined her older brother, Kenny, and was later joined by her two younger brothers, Bill and Bob. Sharon attended Wibaux Public Schools and graduated with the class of 1967. Later in life, Sharon attended college Dawson Community College and completed an Associates of Arts Business Degree. Sharon married Darrell Feldmann on December 20, 1968. Sharon and Darrell had four boys: Ward, Loren, Ryan and Kyle. Sharon and Darrell made their lives in the countryside east of Wibaux. While living on the farm, Sharon spent the majority of her time helping with the daily activities of farm and ranch life such as calving, lambing, harvesting, and haying. When her kids got older, you could always count on Sharon to be at their sporting events—no matter the weather conditions or how far away it was. Darrell and Sharon divorced in 1991 but remained very good friends. Sharon's favorite activities were spending time with family and cooking family dinners for her boys. Sharon's most loved time of the year was Christmas. All of her children would be home, and she would cook the holiday dinner. Sharon enjoyed many other activities including playing pinochle with friends and family as well as spending time outdoors gardening, camping and fishing. She loved to try and boss around her four strapping boys, and they loved her for it. She enjoyed spending time with her grandkids, nieces and nephews. Sharon and her boys took several comical adventures camping in South Dakota, Fort Peck and Yellowstone. Sharon had a very big and warm heart that touched many people during her life. Sharon was preceded in death by her son, Joseph Kyle; and her parents, Warren and Catherine Rogers. Sharon is survived by her four sons: Ward and his wife Monika of Pasco, Washington, and their children, McKenzie, Bridger, and Braxton; Loren and his wife Laura of Beach, North Dakota, and their children, Tessa, Tyra and Taya; Ryan of Wibaux, Montana; and Kyle of Wibaux, Montana; her brothers, Bill (Deanie) Rogers and Bob (Molly) Rogers of Wibaux, Montana, and Kenny Rogers of Beach, North Dakota.
