“ *I remember the last time i got to see you.
i was kinda sad that i didn't get to say goodbye to you when you had to leave the school.
One day when i was in class you and your daughters came in to visit.
You came up to me, grabbed my hand and told me to follow my dreams.
No teacher has ever said such kind words like that to me in my life.
I'm extremely thankful i got to see you that one last time and i will always keep those words you told me locked in my heart.
R.I.P Mrs.Lindquist! You were special to me.*

Systems Technology. Just completed my second semester and ended with a 3.52 GPA. I can't believe it's been a year already since you passed away. Miss you.*

“ I had the opportunity to work with Sharon and Jim for the Montana Organic Association. Sharon genuinely touched me with her warmth, joyfulness and generosity. What a loving soul in this world! She will be greatly missed by all of her friends and colleagues at MOA. My thoughts and prayers go out to Jim, Lauren and Julia and the rest of Sharon's family. I recently read a quote by Jean de La Fontaine, which I hopes helps you as it has helped me: "Sadness flies away on the wings of time." Blessings to you.

“ Our deepest sympathy. Sharon was the neatest lady. When I read of her death, the words, 'I'll fly away' came to mind.

“ Roxie and I send our condolences in the loss of Sharon. Not many people make a difference in someone's life, BUT Sharon did make a difference. Think of all the students with special needs that Sharon helped and guided to a better life. Sharon was a wonderful friend and was enjoyable to spend time visiting and traveling to different events. Sharon was a giving and sharing person and she had a love for self sustainable life style. She loved our earth and wanted to leave it in better condition. Sharon loved organic farming and being involved in organic organizations. Sharon will be missed by us and many others. We will always have the wonderful memories of one of the most unselfish and caring individuals we have ever met. Thanks for the memories.
