Shelley was born on May 23, 1955 in Butte, Montana, the daughter of John F. and Donna Lee (Horton) Lowney. She was raised and educated in Butte, graduating from Butte Central High School with the class of 1973. Shelley and Jim Person were united in marriage on May 31, 1975 at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Butte. Following their marriage, they moved to Casper, Wyoming where Shelley worked in the high school library. They moved to Glendive in 1979 and Shelley had a day care in her home for twelve years. For the past 16 years, Shelley was the secretary for Sacred Heart Catholic Church and worked part-time at the Enchanted Room for several years. Shelley was extremely devoted to her family. Shelley and Jim attended every event the children were involved in with sporting events being especially enjoyed. Perhaps, Shelley was the #1 Red Devil fan and on the way to becoming the #1 Bobcat fan. She loved the gatherings when all the family were able to get together and especially loved the time spent at the family cabin in Elk Park (near Butte) that her father built in the 1960's. The family 4th of July celebration was a true celebration in every sense of the word. Time spent with her husband, her children, or her grandchildren was truly time well spent and enjoyed. Shelley was also a true friend; always there to lend a helping hand, offer a listening ear, or a shoulder to lean on. Shelley's heart was as big as Montana's sky. Shelley also had a passion for quilting and spent many a sleepless night in her downstairs work room creating a work of heart for that someone special. Her quilts were assuredly quilted with love. Just about every family member has one of Shelley's special quilts to snuggle up with. Shelley was preceded in death by her parents, a sister MaryAnn and a son, Joseph. Survivors include her husband, Jim, of Glendive; her daughters, Sara Hauser and her husband Mark and their children, Sophia and Calaghan of Hebron, North Dakota and Katie Cady and her husband Curt and their children, Drew, Hunter, Pete and Rylee of Belgrade, Montana; her sons, John Person of Butte and Mike Person of Glendive; her brothers, Dennis Lowney and his wife Linda of Butte, Tim Lowney and his wife Yvonne of Missoula, and John Lowney and his wife Peggy of Butte; her sisters, Meg Bristol and her husband Bob of Butte, Jan Lowney, Donna Lowney and Colleen Maloney, all of Butte; as well as dozens of nieces and nephews.
