Shirley was raised in Glendive where she graduated in 1957 from Dawson County High School. She worked at various places, including Reynolds Warehouse Grocery where she met her late husband Jerry Bishop. In April of 1961 Shirley married Jerry, the love of her life. In 1975, they purchased The Town Skillet which they operated until 1989 when they moved to Billings. After the death of her husband, Shirley resided in Billings for a while before returning to Glendive, with her daughter Penni, who lovingly took care of her for many years.

Shirley loved putting puzzles together, playing scrabble and riding her scooter around town but she especially loved reading her Bible. She was a devout Christian lady who spent time praying for her family and friends. She loved going to Bible study in her home in Billings. Shirley moved into the Billings Health and Rehab Center in 2008 where she resided until the time of her death.

Her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were her pride and joy. Shirley was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Jerry; her brothers, Harry (Marion) Colbrese, Carl (Lucylle) Colbrese; her sisters, Francis (Angelo) Tomalino, Virginia (Orville) Kurtz and Rose Mary (John) Nichols.

Shirley is survived by one son, Timothy (Debi) Bishop of St. Joseph, Michigan; three daughters, Kari (Scott) Wilcox of Glendive, Rachelle (Wade) Reinhardt and Penni Bishop of Billings; six grandchildren, Stacy, Shawn, Lyndsi, Chelsi, Danielle and Noah; three great grandchildren, Blayke, Koby and Quinnli; her sister, Janet (Dick) Bjelland; brother, John (Jackie) Colbrese all of Billings; her sister-in-law, Lucylle Colbrese and numerous nieces and nephews.

Shirley will be greatly missed by her family and friends, but is now rejoicing in the arms of Jesus and being reunited with her husband and family members who have gone on before her.

“ Shirley was a friend and "table mate" with my sister Jane at Billings Health & Rehab. They were such great friends and spent time together. We lost Jane in March of this year and now Jane and Shirley are rejoicing together, without pain and disease to slow them down. Shirley was a lovely person and I feel privileged to have known her. God Bless you all in your loss and grief. Laurel Noland

“ I do remember several things about your Mother. First her and your Dad was our neighbors for a long time in the Berry Subdivision. I remember them opening The Town Skillet. It was a good place to eat. Every time I would see her in Billings she always knew me. Prayers. She will be missed.
