

Shirley JoAnne Jenkins

January 27, 1934 - September 5, 2007

Shirley JoAnne Jenkins, 73, passed away Friday, August 31, 2007 in St. Vincent Hospital in Billings. JoAnne was born January 27, 1934 in Sidney, Montana the daughter of James and Beatrice (Cummings) Mitchell. She was raised in the Burns Creek area near Savage, Montana and attended school in Savage. She later obtained her G.E.D. and earned college course credits. JoAnne married Eugene R. Jenkins on February 8, 1952 in Sidney, Montana. They lived and raised their family in Glendive. JoAnne worked as a sales associate at Pamida, Anthony's, Stage and True Value Hardware. JoAnne was an active member in her church. She enjoyed music, art and had done volunteer work at the Gallery in Glendive. Her biggest joy in life was her family. JoAnne was preceded in death by her husband, Eugene; a son, Dennis; two brothers, Kenneth "Nick" and George Mitchell; two sisters, Martha Meyers and Alice "Badt" Fulton and a daughter-in-law, Penny Jenkins. She is survived by five sons, Ronald Jenkins of Denver, Colorado, Vaughn, John and Steve (Wanda) Jenkins all of Glendive and David (Pam) Jenkins of Williston, North Dakota; three daughters, Bonita Jenkins and Tami (Bob) Littell, all of Glendive and Shana (Gary) Hollowell of Wibaux, Montana; two sisters, Marge (Arnold) Larsen of Sidney and Joyce (Cal) Burris of Glendive; 16 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Shirley JoAnne Jenkins

---

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM