Shirley was born on August 15, 1938 to Henry and Anne Rau in Sidney, Montana. She grew up on the family farm with six sisters and four brothers. She was educated in Sidney and graduated from Sidney High School with the class of 1956. Her first job was at the Tastee Freeze. She met Sheryll Price, and they married in April 1961 and to this union one daughter was born, LuAnn. They had later moved to Baker, Savage and eventually to Glendive. This marriage later ended in divorce in 1968.

At the age of forty-four, Shirley attended Dawson Community College, taking some basic and business classes. Throughout her life, her employment carried her in the customer service field. She has always been very social and loved to visit with everyone. She's made very many friends and acquaintances over the years in our community. Shirley worked for Doc n' Eddys for over thirty years until April of 2019, she loved her customers.

In her spare time, she found a great deal to do, always keeping busy. She always loved to plant a garden and flowers every spring and can fruit in the fall. She always made the best pies. Shirley loved to decorate for every holiday at home and at work. She liked to sew things for her family and loved a good crossword puzzle. On warm days in the summer, you would usually find her on her porch, sitting with an ice cream cone. She also loved to sit by the river fishing. To relax, she liked the "good ole westerns" on TV or listening to gospel music. Another favorite thing of hers was to "take a drive" down the road, to visit family or go shopping on nice days. Her family has always been the most important to her, spending time with them. Especially her daughter and grandson.

Shirley had a strong faith in the Lord, and always looked forward to church every Sunday. She has always been the most giving person, with a beautiful heart.

She was preceded in death by her parents; four brothers, Sonny, Albert, Elmer and Jim Rau; two sisters, Alice Strasheim and Emma Uhrich.

Shirley is survived by her daughter, LuAnn Price of Glendive; her grandson, Shayne Price of Glendive; four sisters, Carol (Dennis) Herbalsheimer of Thornton, Colorado, Alvina Schmitt of Sidney, Donna Webber of Sidney and Joanne Hagler of Savage, Montana; numerous nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

“ *LuAnn,
Your mother was such a special lady and was always so kind to me.
I have such fond memories of her helping decorate at The Gallery with Gail and the many hours we spent at coffee with "the girls." I will always admire her ability to make something cheery out of nearly nothing. Emilie Boyles*

“ I am sorry for the loss of your Mom LuAnn! She will always hold a special place in my heart! Even though she was my Dad's cousin, I always called her Aunt Shirley(maybe cuz the age difference). Such a caring and loving lady! Whenever she would see me she would always take time out to visit and share family news and reminisce about our family. She even would pass on a few old pictures. My favorite being of Great Grandpa and Grandma. What a very SPECIAL person in my life. I will miss her but I know she is in heaven now. I pray for peace, strength and comfort in the days ahead!
