

Skip Tracy Beach

December 11, 1960 - July 8, 2020

Skip Tracy Beach, age 59, passed away unexpectedly on July 8, 2020, at his home in Beach, North Dakota. He was laid to rest at the Carlyle Cemetery on July 12, 2020. Skip's daughter, Tracy, and his family give heartfelt thanks to the individual motorcyclists and members of the Dirty Side Down Riders Club for the honor guard. Special acknowledgements go out to Gary Hartse, Paul Ridenhower, and Ed and Cheryl Hammond. Silha Funeral Home of Beach was entrusted with the arrangements.

Skip was born on December 11, 1960, to Dick and Phyllis (Sallgren) Beach. He attended grade school at Carlyle, Montana, and graduated from Golva High School. Skip had many jobs in his life in both agriculture and the oilfield. He was also a long-time professional truck driver, running long and short hauls. Everyone knew Skip's Kenworth with its memorable epigraphs. He enjoyed working on small engines and motorcycles. In recent years, Skip connected beekeepers with local farmers and ranchers to pollinate area crops.

Skip had a great love for motorcycles, attending rallies all over the country. He made friends everywhere he went, and his door was always open for visitors. He loved to sit and discuss, and sometimes debate, a wide range of topics. Skip was preceded in death by his parents; infant sister, Cindy; brother, Mitch Beach; nephews, Shad Beach, Dustin Beach, Ariel Beach; and great-nephew Logan Stedman.

Skip is survived by his daughter, Tracy (Randy) Burris; siblings, Tina (Dale)

Lantz, Murril Beach, Monte (Pam) Beach, Clark Beach, Terrel Beach, Trudy (Rick) Dunn, Dell (Bobbi) Beach; numerous nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews.

A memorial fund has been set up at Western Cooperative Credit Union.

Remembrances and condolences may be shared with family and friends at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.

Sending desert sand and sunshine from Arizona. Skip would figure out a way to park that Kenworth at Rod and Mary's in Bullhead City and hangout visiting Clark. "Faster trucks, wilder women, and better whiskey.". Loved by family and friends. R. I. P. Skip.

“ Skip you were a lot of things to a lot of people, but what you were to me was a REAL GENUINE BROTHER, you had your downfalls, but, through all of that, I still loved you, just like a sister can...and I truly hope you rest in peace. Your demons are gone, to live no more. Just know, that you left us with a fight that we, as your true loved ones can fight...the ever present Satan, the root of all evils, greed, but most of all the kindness and forgiveness in the human nature. You were my inspiration in the last months of your life. RIP big brother, I Love you from the bottom of my heart.

“ *Condolences to Skip's family and friends.
We will miss his visits, his calls and his yearly "Merry Christmas" messages.
Big Guy with the Big Heart..
And an unforgettable laugh.. Raw and unabridged, vocal in convictions... But one thing stands out.. He reached out to those less fortunate and did what he could to be supportive in their time of need.
This is how I'll remember Skip.*

“ As many of you know I was the owner of Walz Truck Repair in Beach ND.
Skip was a good customer and an absolute riot to have in the shop. Skip was also a good personal friend and even after I sold the business Skip would call me up out of the blue to just chat. If you knew Skip and his Blue Kenworth you also knew his train horn. Skip you were a good friend and i will miss your random phone calls, rest in peace buddy!

“ It was always a pleasure to see Skip and visit with him. I am saddened by his passing and I now wish I would have made more of an effort to do so. My thoughts are with his family and friends. I have many very good memories of Skip as I'm sure you all have. I will miss him. We must all work hard not to take things for granted, especially in these trying times. I know I need to do that. Skip was a special man.
