

Vivian Schock

August 11, 1924 - August 21, 2007

Vivian O. Schock, age 83, of Glendive passed away Sunday, August 19, 2007 at the Glendive Medical Center in Glendive, Montana. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 A.M. Tuesday, August 21, 2007 in Our Savior Lutheran Church in Glendive with Pastor James Hageman officiating. Interment will follow at Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Vivian was born on August 11, 1924 in Glendive the daughter and oldest child of Isaac and Edna (Graber) Deckert. She was raised and educated in Richey, Montana graduating from Richey High School with the class of 1942. After her graduation she moved to Glendive and went to work at the Northern Pacific Hospital as a nurses aide. Vivian married Howard C. Hodous in 1945 in Glendive. They had three children; James Howard Hodous, Judith Ann Hodous and Robert Charles Hodous. After nine years of marriage Vivian and Howard divorced. Vivian remarried on December 20, 1954 to Reuben Schock. They had three children; Deanna Kay Schock, Dean Ray Schock and Denise Renee Schock. They remained happily married until the time of her death. After the children left home, Vivian went to work for Dr. Thomas Malee MD as a receptionist. When Dr. Malee retired she went to work for Dr. Leroy Moline DDS. After five years with Dr. Moline, Vivian retired and spent most of her spare time crocheting. Vivian was preceded in death by one sister, Phyllis Marguris and one granddaughter, Laurie Lafond. Vivian is survived by her husband, Reuben of Glendive; three sons, Jim Hodous and his wife Kathy of Glendive, and their two sons, Rodney and Jason Hodous; Robert Hodous of Mill Creek, Washington, and his son Robert Hodous and Dean Schock and his wife Tina of Billings, Montana, and their three children, Justin, Jessica and Joshua Ludwig; three daughters, Judy Lafond and her husband Larry of Lincoln, Nebraska, and their four children, Kelly, Kiley, Tiffany and Stephanie Lafond; Deanna Boles and her husband Tim of Kalispell, Montana, and their two children, Danielle and Tori Boles and Denise Park of Rathdrum, Idaho, and her three children, Kelsey, Seth and Jamie Park; one brother Curtiss Deckert of Glendive; one sister, Shirley Goetz of Glendive; and 11 great grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Vivian Schock

---

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM