“ Me and Bo did tons of things together , fishing , drinking beer, golfing , and playing track and field on the Nintendo with screwdriver at your moms house in Anaconda after she moved to Butte, watching football games at my house , and just hanging out on birch street. ...when I would do stupid shit Wayne would say Budr your going to get in trouble but I would do it anyways, my mom absolutely loved him, every time he was at my house and I got in trouble my mom would say Fig as she called him why did you let bud do something stupid , Wayne would just laugh and say I don't know... I already miss you more then you will ever know ...love you always my friend.....cancer sucks!!!

“ Wayne was and is and will always be a role model for how a good human being looks like. He always held out a helping hand to me when I needed him and he was the best father to me. Wayne definitely did not have it easy nor was he well off but he sure did have a wonderfully big heart and I will miss him with everything in me.
