“ Bob, Jed, Lorraine, Andy, Kathy, and Gayle, I'm so sorry for the loss of your brother Billy. Thinking about him brings back so many memories of growing up – all the fun we had at your old school house, Grandpa Fisher's farm right down the hill from Grandpa Blake's farm, working and playing together at my folks' farm, pillow fights at your house in Glendive, roaming the hills out at your Grandma Blake's with adults playing cards and Mrs. Blake making wonderful meals in a tiny kitchen. Her lefse! I think about your mom scaring a very young Rick with a chicken when he wouldn't quit bawling. What fun it was to come and visit in Marsh – we explored every square inch of that town. The mischief – there wasn't anything we couldn't think of when the 12 of us put our heads together. And the music! There was always great music whenever Fishers, Blakes, and Jacobsens were together. Beautiful memories. Rest in peace Billy. Sandra (Fisher) and Curt Ehman

“ My Brother Billy was so fun, and so funny..The best times were in Mash, jumping off the Cliff, wallowing in the mud, and throwin tomatos at the bums on the freight trains. He was really good at walking on stilts, and walking on his hands. He sure learned how to run cuz all his brothers were older than him- he was either trying to run with them or run away from them. We have all hurt so much watching his life ebb away. He was so very loyal, and was there for you if you needed him. He spent time in Canada with me and helped me so much- I miss him and always will. We all love him. Gayle. Neat to see some of the posts, I remember Bobby and Franki both
