She was raised in Havre, Montana along with one sister and two brothers. Corky met LuVerne "Doc" Curtiss in Havre while he was surveying. They were married at Havre, Montana on October 13, 1956. She lovingly devoted her life to Doc for 48 years and to raising their six children. Her love for family and friends was evident to the very end. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Fairfield, Montana. They moved back to Circle in 1957 where they started a business known as Curtiss Repair. They retired in 1982 and moved to Augusta, Montana where they lived for ten years. They then moved to Simms, Montana and built a home which they enjoyed for thirteen years. They also helped their son Bob with his business in Simms, Curtiss Service Center, until Doc passed away. Corky returned to Circle in 2006 along with her parents, where she thoroughly enjoyed family and friends both old and new. Corky put her whole heart and soul into everything she did. As time and opportunities allowed, she enjoyed dancing, square dancing, crocheting, cross stitching and playing cards. Her other activities included all types of puzzles, fishing, playing the piano and a good joke.
